Section 3: Other Activities and Issues:

On International Women's Day I had a student shadow me for the day and introduced her to life as Councillor. The day involved taking her to learn about the Recycle System Wrexham proudly use. We then attended a Scrutiny Committee and I encouraged her to take part in the debate. I then took her to see the film, Suffragette, to explain why women vote and to encourage her to focus on aspirations of her own.

I have and continue to work with many organisations to achieve youth provision in the ward which is outreach at the moment with a view to being permanent.

My activities include trying to build on community spirit and helping out where ever I can. I am also keen to be involved in workshops to help constituents understand and complete Council Consultations. I focus on helping the communicate have their voices heard.

Section 4: Learning & Development Undertaken:

- Attended LGA Conferences and workshops in London (at my own expense)
- Attended WAO development of scrutiny in Llanrwst
- Attended Members Development sessions through the year
- Working with Scrutiny Facilitators and Officers on Reports and Committees

Section 5: Other Activities and Issues:

- As Chair of Customer Performance I meet monthly with Facilitators and the vice chair to request officers attendance to scrutiny committees to deliver and scrutinise the reports with committee members.
- I Hold Regular meetings with Carnival Committee.
- I meet regularly with the Leader of Wrexham Independents to inform of my own and constituents concerns.
- Daily interactions with constituents both in person verbally and by mail.
- To achieve the best for the ward and put constituents voices where they can be heard
- To assist in ensuring that children flourish in safe environments and to focus on wellbeing for future generations to come
