Chair of Garden Village Residents Association	1 per month all attended

Section 2: Constituency Activity:

Very active in Village on a daily basis recent projects

Council wouldn't paint old street signs in village so I went out and painted 27 street signs myself visiting each at least twice to bring them up to a clean and acceptable standard

Monthly surgeries together with North Wales Police in the village

2 new benches installed by shops

2 new disabled pavement access areas constructed

Carry out a monthly street light check after mid night and report any defects on any of the 250+ lights

A vast amount of my work for the last year has been dealing with residents complaints about Virgin media contractors and sorting out substandard workmanship this is still ongoing. And has lead to in the region of all most a hundred defect some larger than others but all requiring attention

I have organised all materials and planted four large planters on Chester road to make area look brighter

Carried out a large daffodil planting scheme planting well over 5000 bulbs with the assistance of a small amount of residents

Continue to get various maintenance work carried out

I am currently working on several other community based projects in the village which i hope will come to fruition before the end of the year.

Organise the Garden Village Fete which takes many many hours with a small team of 7 other committee members

Section 3: Initiatives and Special Activities:

I have two special activities im currently working on

I also volunteer as a first responder with Welsh Ambulance for my community answering medical emergencies through the 999 system. This is also a massive commitment and i have attended well over 200 – 300 calls during my time in the role.
