

Summary Of Wrexham Local Development Plan (2013 -2028)

Please note, this is a summary of the assessment. Refer to the full text.

Department: Environment & Planning
 Department Reference: EP/EIA00092/2018
 Responsible Officer: Lawrence Isted
 Job Title: Head of Environment & Planning
 Completed Date:

Positive Impacts
Impact	Description
Age Adults	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Age CYP	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Disability	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Welsh Language	Welsh Language: Is explicitly covered in Planning Policy Wales and Technical Advice Note 20: Planning and the Welsh Language. Both illustrate how the Welsh Language should be considered when preparing LDPs. The Policy Welsh Language and the Social and Cultural Fabric of Communities specifically engages with the effects of development on the Welsh Language, The Council is also subject to the Welsh Language Standards, as of 30th March 2016.
Age Adults	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Age CYP	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri

Disability	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Welsh Language	Welsh Language: Is explicitly covered in Planning Policy Wales and Technical Advice Note 20: Planning and the Welsh Language. Both illustrate how the Welsh Language should be considered when preparing LDPs. The Policy Welsh Language and the Social and Cultural Fabric of Communities specifically engages with the effects of development on the Welsh Language, The Council is also subject to the Welsh Language Standards, as of 30th March 2016.
Age Adults	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Age CYP	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Disability	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Welsh Language	Welsh Language: Is explicitly covered in Planning Policy Wales and Technical Advice Note 20: Planning and the Welsh Language. Both illustrate how the Welsh Language should be considered when preparing LDPs. The Policy Welsh Language and the Social and Cultural Fabric of Communities specifically engages with the effects of development on the Welsh Language, The Council is also subject to the Welsh Language Standards, as of 30th March 2016.
Age Adults	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Age CYP	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Disability	The evidence base for the Local Development Plan includes census data and various other pieces of socio-economic research which highlight the various protected characteristics. There are numerous potential impacts the plan will have if development comes forward. For example, major developments will be required to improve the active travel network, this will impact positively on those without access to the private car, inclusive of young people. Similarly the plan requires design to imbed the pri
Welsh Language	Welsh Language: Is explicitly covered in Planning Policy Wales and Technical Advice Note 20: Planning and the Welsh Language. Both illustrate how the Welsh Language should be considered when preparing LDPs. The Policy Welsh Language and the Social and Cultural Fabric of Communities specifically engages with the effects of development on the Welsh Language, The Council is also subject to the Welsh Language Standards, as of 30th March 2016.

